EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Lulu is without doubt one of Richmond's truly talented musicians, she has played countless gigs in Pubs, Folk clubs The Georgian Theatre, N. Yorkshire, singing a mixture of her own songs and covers in her own inimitable style. Lulu's instrumental abilities should also be noted, as a guitarist she has performed as part of "The Dave Harris Jazz Duo" until recently played fretless bass in the British country band "Blue Horizon". This band saw her in Knoxville Tennessee, playing gigs and winning awards for song writing and Band Of The Year in March 2001. Combining her songwriting talents with those of co songwriter producer Mike Shepherd, Lulu has been working on her debut solo album "Loose Ends". This album has taken the best part of 2001 to complete and is now finished and ready for release. An eclectic mix of haunting melodies and soul felt lyrics this album is a cross over from Folk to Easy Listening/Jazz, Blues and Pop Lulu's vocals have been interwoven to reveal a rich tapestry of sound and emotion. Finally, The Band Lulu has now formed are a multitalented bunch of musicians, playing local gigs and looking forward to playing the main stage at Richmond live Aug 2nd 2003. So if any one from the USA happens to be in Richmond, England in August or any one who has read this and will be in the area it will be a good day if the last few years are anything to go by!
