LISTENING: Love Songs, EASY LISTENING: Musicals/Broadway Details: "Mom Mike's singing Again."

That was a very familiar phrase when I was growing up... and you know. I still am. However, in those early days I did not know how to sing. I liked to watch the "Judy Garland Show" and thought that if I could do what she did, then I could be a star. So I danced and pretend to entertain a make believe audience. Then came Lawrence Welk! Wow, what talent was on the TV then! In my Senior year I joined the Choir and have been hooked ever since. I became involved in Musical theater and then I began singing lessons. I sang at musical events for commercial work, at church and in cabarets to raise money for charitable events such as fund raising to purchase a piano for the church, AIDS research and cancer research. I was working with my vocal coach Gregg Tallman (now deceased) and was involved with him in the Fairbanks, Alaska Music Festival. There I met Mary Cleere Haran and she was the one who said that I should do jazz instead of opera... the rest is history. I became a singing waiter in Max's Opera Cafe in Walnut Creek and San Francisco California. My goal was to create a CD before I was 40 and although I did not reach that specific goal, my life changing directions inspired me to continue with my dreams. The name Perhaps Love came from my good friend Dennis Crow. I sang Perhaps Love at my grandmother's second wedding when she was in her eighties. Today after ending a 24 year relationship, I am now moving on and in love once more, so "Perhaps Love" is the key. I want to dedicate this CD to the memory of my mom, Lorna Frederick whom I loved very much. She died of cancer at the age of 56. I WILL BE CONTRIBUTING 20% OF ALL PROCEEDS TO CANCER RESEARCH. It is a way to give back to the wonderful women who brought me into this amazing world. I hope you enjoy this CD and I enjoy sharing it with you, and remember that it is the Spirit within that does the work. As my friend Maxine would say, "If the dream is big enough, the facts don't count." Live you Dreams... If not you, who? If not now,when?

"Perhaps Love" will be what it takes for you. Thank all of you for the support God Bless Love Michael.
