Piano driven POP Ballads and up-tempo Dance remixes, sounds like a mix between Richard Marx and Daniel Bedingfield 6 MP3 Songs POP: with Electronic Production, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Dear Friend, And I call you a friend because that's who buys my CD's. So VERY Nice to know you! The members of my management team and I are getting closer than ever to scoring a record deal. Getting that recording contract will help advance my career to a national level and Right now, I'm building on that foundation by performing shows and selling my first independent release. Every single CD sale (like the one that you purchase for me), gives me ammunition that I can bring to the table of Sony, Jive, J Records, RCA....all the big boys. Selling a total of 10,000 CD's through CDBaby and my website richarddeesewill be just the kind of sales punch that will open doors for me and you can help. Derek Sivers and his staff at CDBaby are the best at customer service and keeping your credit/debit card transactions secure over the internet, so absolutely no worries there. I encourage you to check out my website, richarddeese, and read about what I'm doing in the weekly journal, POST on my guestbook, email me if you want!!! Tell me all about you and then you can learn about me and share my experiences too. You really are appreciated and will be a part of my original support base with lots of good stuff to come when we finally score!! All right, I'll cut it short for now, but PLEASE pick up a copy of my CD, What It Takes, and you can really be the biggest part of what I'm trying to accomplish. Talk to you soon!!
