Independent NJ Singer/Songwriter/Musician Russ Bonagura Releases New CD SONGS FOR PEOPLE If you live in America and watch TV, youve heard Russ Bonaguras voice and music. For starters, all across America television viewers have heard the sounds of Bonaguras jingle I Like It On That for Santa Fe Salsas 2007 nationwide promotion launch of the product line. This began airing on Dec 11, 2006 and will run continuously thru 2008 on all major networks. Written, produced and performed by Bonagura on all instruments and vocals, heres the link to view the commercial online:youtube.com/watch?v=LY8Z0CIn0QU In addition, many of Russ songs have been aired on Natl TV shows including ABC, CBS, WB, FOX, VH1, FUSE: For example, "Please Understand" (from his 2003 CD release 'Pieces') featured on CBS' Young And The Restless.. CBS One Life To Live has featured Russ At This Moment.. And ABCs All My Children has featured 2 others from the Pieces CD "Angel By My Side" and Take A Minute" more than a dozen times in the past 18 months. Both the song and the music video for Take A Minute have been aired on AMC and are scheduled for more airings this year. This video can be seen on Russ site: russbonagura.com/ A child prodigy who was singing, learned to play bass, guitar, and drums all by age 10 and formed his first band at age 13, Russ Bonagura has been on the road to establishing himself as a career-oriented singer/songwriter since the early days of his teens. A staple on the East Coast music scene, performing over 100 live gigs per year, Russ has independently released 6 recordings (Pieces being #6) and 1 music video including; 4 full-length CDs and 2 EP/Singles and, he has penned more than 300 songs to date. In addition to above, Russ songs have been used as spots on NYs WPLJ Scott Todd In The Morning, The Howard Stern Radio Show and he has also lent his voice and face to many radio and tv jingles including 2004s "Visa and The Grinch" commercial starring Jim Carey. Russ' musical reach has even extended outside the United States; his song "Daydreamin'" (the title track from his 1998 CD release) was a signature tune for the 1998 Olympic Winter Games in Nagano, Japan and appeared on the CBS Music Library that year. Russ current 2008 independent release (his 7th) SONGS FOR PEOPLE is available now by visiting his website! Some of the players on the new material include; Mike Brignardello (Lonestar, Faith Hill), Howard Duck (Rascal Flatts) and Pat Buchanan (James Taylor, Hall Oates).
