Fawnia Mondey Exotic Dance Lessons exoticdancelessons.com "Strip To It is much more innocent than most people would give it credit at first glance. First, this is NOT porn. You will not see naked beauties corrupting the moral fiber of our society. What you will get is music that is intended for in-home stripper sessions of the wife for the husband or girlfriend for the boyfriend variety. It ranges from sultry jazzy beats to up-tempo techno ala Lords of Acid. But as if this concept wasn't already borderline genius (how many guys totally would get a thrill out of their wife surprising them with the same moves you can get at the dirty strip club downtown without having to spend a dollar?), they also include some videos of basic strip and dance moves. Also is a small website that includes tips from the pros. This is the perfect gift for Valentine's Day for any straight man. And sorry straight ladies and gay men, in this installment there are only tips for female strippers. And yes you could easily use some of this music as foreplay background music or whatever your imagination leads you."

J-Sin Editor - Smother.net smother.net Music Review from February 2004 issue of "The Frequency" "If there's one thing sexier than a naked woman, it's a woman stripping naked. From burlesque to grotesque, stripping is damn hot. While it's true that many people look better with their clothes on, the art of stripping can definitely make up for nature's imperfections of the body. Some like bellydancing, others like cabaret and, of course, there are those who will always be 'hard up' for the brass rail riding. Stripping can be dirty and sensuous (my personal favourite), but regardless of style, stripping takes practice. Enter Stephen Sherrard (a.k.a. Da Brayne). Apart from music, Da Brayne loves women (his wife, in particular), and loves sex and sensuality in art when presented in a tasteful way. After 10 years of studio production experience, Stephen thought it was time to pool together a group of talented and diverse artists to erect his own full length (...album, that is). Strip To It is a sexy synthesis of jazz, pop, funk, hip-hop, and electronica. There's not simply something here for everyone, there's something here for everyone to strip to! Not as if the title didn't give it away or nothing, but this CD is unlike your average compilation of sexually motivated music: Strip To It is sensually enhanced for your stripping pleasure. Along with the 12 tracks, the CD cums with in-depth instructional video from established skin peelers flesh revealers as well as tons of titillating strip-tease tips. While the music isn't necessarily for the entire family (especially track #10 - 'Phone Sex'), the multimedia content is done in a classy, professional manner that doesn't show anything that it doesn't have to. In a market that is usually characterized by being either risqué or cliché, Stephen Sherrard's Strip To It falls right in the middle. I give it a resounding 2 thumbs up, as well as something else... " Chris Bonin Music Director CSCR Radio UTSC, Toronto utscradio.com STRIP TO IT Album Review by Nigel M "This is a fairly unusual CD because the intention is for it to be used as music to literally learn to strip to. It's really aimed at couples or I guess anyone who fancies getting into erotic dancing. As a basic introduction to exotic dancing it's actually pretty good as it gives a variety of fast and slow music a lot of which is voiced by a suitably sexy (actually very sexy) female voice. There is also an enhanced section to the CD with a few instructional videos of some dancers explaining and demonstrating stripping techniques. The videos are a fairly low picture quality, I used windows media player to view them, but do their job of explaining some basic strippers moves very well. Overall the STRIP TO IT CD is a fun idea that might spice up some people's sex lives or even give a few tips to your girlfriend if she's thinking about entering a naughty little talent contest. Bear in mind that this is just a music CD with some extra video footage for your computer and not a full blown DVD (although I understand a DVD is planned) and you should have some fun with it - and oh yes the music is pretty good just to listen to as well!" Four Star Rating Nigel M Phase 9 Music phase9.tv "LADIES GET MORE INTIMATE STRIP TO IT Ladies, if you have ever wanted to take it off all sexy like for your man, or if you're thinking about getting into dancing professionally, but don't have any clue on how or what to do, this will be a great tool for you! you links to more music, more sites, more more, do it for the price you would pay for a normal CD!!!

Learn what the pros already know, shock that man in you life!" Rile Red The Red Room of Ladies theredroomladies.com STRIP TO IT Reviewed by Naomi DeBruyn "This CD is a rather interesting piece of work in a number of ways. First, it's not just a music CD, it's also a multimedia product. Steve's quoted from his site as saying: "My goal was to put together not only a great collection of music to dance to, but to provide quality instructional content, primarily for women, so that they could comfortably perform an erotic dance for their partner, even if they have never tried it before." He certainly put in the demographic research necessary to come up with this CD, interviewing women from all walks of life and all aspects of the industry - from dancers to lingerie sellers. Whether you just want some great tunes, and they're all memorable and contain a good dance beat, or you actually want to learn to strip for your partner, this CD has all you'll need. With the aid of some professional dancers, and an award winning fitness model (Fawnia Mondey, "Alexus", "Nicole", and "Kiri"), Stephen has put together some excellent instructional segments. You can learn quite a bit, whether you want to put it to use or not is your own business. There's no complete frontal nudity shown, or explicit content, and going by the standards of today, nothing beyond the rating of "PG - 10." "Strip To It" is being promoted as a "sensually enhanced" CD, and I'd agree with that statement. It's like two products in one as the creator says. The audio content plays in any CD player, while the video content needs a computer to access it. Some of the best session musicians in Seattle, Washington took part in the creation of the audio tracks, and also some fantastic vocalists! While you may be thinking that the audio CD will be graphic, I'd not be rating it as high in mature and offensive content as most of the hip-hop and rap on the market today. While there's some sexual innuendo, there's nothing blatantly put forward anywhere. It's a nice blend of fast, slow, and just great dance music. According to Stephen the styles of music found on his CD are: Slow and Sensual, Playfully Sexy Dance Music, and Mid-Tempo Funky Fun. I'll cover one of every category for you here to give you a fair sampling of what can be found. For the "Slow and Sensual" category, I'd have to say that "Afterglow" is definitely my favourite track. It is definitely sensual, and the vocals carry you off to somewhere else if you just let the music invade your entire being. According to the liner notes, this track features vocal samples from the "Deepest India" sample CD set. It's a wonderful find, and the joining of melody and vocals is seamless! This is a track with numerous possibilities, one I fully expect to see backing a commercial on TV for travel or stress relief! It was difficult to choose a track for the "Playfully

"Sexy Dance Music" category, as I honestly enjoyed them all. I love a good beat, and there's a bit of hook in each of the six tracks fitting this description. "Cyber Girl" managed to tweak my twisted sense of humour and visions of the world when technology is finished with it. Providing the vocals for this hip, intense track is Divina Mangabat. Her vocals, whether straight up or electronically altered are the perfect vehicle for club music. This is a track that you'll come back to for added listening, it beat out the title track for my close-up. Finally, we have "Mid-Tempo Funk Fun." There's only two tracks on the disc that fall into this example of Stephen's categorizing, and while they were definitely both "funky," it wasn't hard to pick my favourite. I preferred "A Little Sax," both for the less blaring funk melody, and for the addition of Lisa Wood's vocals. Lincoln Adler (saxophone), and Greg Fulton (guitars), join Lisa and Stephen on this track, completing a dynamite sound. If you take this CD seriously, you might find yourself being offended, whether for the reputation that strippers carry in the world, or the sexual innuendo, or perhaps the offensive view of women. Personally, I just looked at it as a musical experience, and I wasn't disappointed at all. I don't know if I'll ever make use of the video lessons, but they're there if I ever want them. The music, I really can't say enough about it. It's captivating, has the beat that coincides with the heart and the feet, and will be seeing hours and hours of play time in this house, by more than one generation, too! Do yourself a favour, and check out "Strip To It." If you're into the club scene at all, I don't think that you'll be disappointed with what you find. Also, if you've always wanted to strip for your man, or woman, but have been too shy, here's the opportunity to learn what you need to know. " - Naomi DeBruyn Senior Reviewer
