Reflections on Steel is a wistful and worldly collection of acoustic and slide guitar instrumentals that are melodic, soothing and relaxing to the ear. 14 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mood Music, EASY LISTENING: Lounge Details: Drummer, guitarist and composer, Tony Graci, proudly presents his first solo CD release. Reflections on Steel is a wistful and worldly collection of acoustic and slide guitar lullabies. Having long used the guitar as an opposing voice to his drumming, Tony has composed a series fo reflective tunes inspired by his love of slide and lap steel guitars, where he drew the melodies from the notes within the chords to create a very organic and distinctive sound. A well-rounded multi-instrumentalist, Tony has written music for network TV and Radio, such as Bravo's Queer Eye for the Straight Guy, TLC's Simplify your Life and Repo Man. Radio spots include, Rolling Rock and Old Navy Currently Tony plays sessions and local gigs in the NYC area and has just received a drum and cymbal endorsement from an exclusive drum company DC California Drums and Souldone Cymbals.
