As a red witch, Delia gets her power from one thing-hot, sweaty sex. She has to have a consort to keep her primed, especially now that she's been chosen as her coven's High Priestess. But there's no way her crush Adam is cut out for the job. He's way too bossy, too macho, too in charge to serve as her magic batteries. Even though sex with him blows her mind and makes her more powerful than she's ever dreamed, she can't drag him into her world. Adam doesn't know anything about witches or covens. All he knows is when he's with Delia, he can't think of anything but having her. Mysterious, dangerous things seem drawn to her, and when her orgasms make things explode-literally-he can't help but want more. Delia must have a source of power and her time is running out. Her coven-and the world-is under attack, forcing her to choose between what's best for everyone else and what her heart truly wants.
