Check it out and see why GINAMARK is one of the hottest up and coming bands 9 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: 2 years in the making and a dozen guest musicians New Inspiration features 9 new recordings. Track 3 Walk to Love was featured on a September 2004 episode of All My Children. Track 4 Faith is sure to catch your attention with its' uplifting melody, hopeful lyrics, and Bob DoLittle's driving bass guitar. The orchestration and arrangement is reminiscent of the 70's sound and Gina's soulful lead and lush backup vocals remind again why audiences love her. GINAMARK'S remake of Paul Simon's Bridge Over Troubled Water gives this classic renewed life. The haunting keyboard pads, and classic piano textures, along with Tom Burfoot's guitar work blend with Gina's gorgeous vocal to create a sonic journey that is reason enough to want to own this album. Track 8 Boy on the Loose is already a crowd favorite. Gina rocks on this one! And, once again, Tom Burfoot's masterful guitar playing prove why he is the most sought after rock guitarist in the Boston area. The pop/jazz ballad New England in September shows off the versatility of Mark Alexander's song writing talent and the range of Gina's rich vocal stylings. This song spotlights the sultry side of her singing. Guest saxophonist Dino Govoni delivers a jaw dropping performance in the arrangement The closing track on the album is Over the Rainbow. The simple beauty of Mark's piano playing and Gina's soaring vocal can easily be a source of new inspiration to any who hears it. _____
