Details: Kyle Phelan is a energetic young man with a single-minded goal and focus on his music that puts him in a special class as an unusual 19 year old with a refreshing sound and guitar playing ability much beyond his years. His major musical influences are from John Mayer, Jack Johnson, Eric Clapton, The Eagles, Stevie Wonder, Justin Timberlake, Gavin DeGraw, and numerous others whose sound has seasoned Kyles own creative style. Even though, still developing, Kyle has a sense that he has a handle on the kind of bluesy-rock-pop sound that for now characterizes who he is. He had a goal of getting a CD out while he was seventeen. With the help of a devoted friend and song-writing partner, Sean Mitchell, Kyle produced his first CD of 7 original songs. Since that time he has had the opportunity to appear on San Diegos local KUSI-TV's morning news program where he performed several of the songs. He also was invited to perform on San Diegos Concerts on the Square sponsored by KPRI radio and Ch.7/39 NBC television station. San Diegos KPRI radio station has played one of his songs on their Unplugged segment, which showcases local talent. Kyle has played gigs at various venues in Los Angeles and San Diego and has opened for other more established artists in the area. He has just released his second CD Ill Be Ready. Even though his first CD My Side Of Soul exhibited his vocal and musical potential, this new CD clearly displays growth in both songwriting and vocals. Kyle doesnt pretend to believe he has arrived. Hes just glad to know hes on the road. He has many more goals and ambitions to attain in his guitar playing and song writing. He doesnt know where all this will go, but he believes in his heart he was created to play guitar and sing.
