A theatrical approach to alternative pop combining elements of jazz, blues, folk, and classic rock with beautiful soaring vocals, tight harmonies, lyrical "catchy" melodies, and "old school" songwriting. 7 MP3 Songs POP: Delicate, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: As an established singer Melanie May Po has performed all over the world as a featured soloist with such legendary singer/actors as Harry Belafonte and acclaimed musical composers as Galt MacDermot. Her solid and impressive solo performing career and resume includes such shows as "Les Miserables", "Miss Saigon", "Hair", and "The King and I" and spans the globe from the West End of London, England to the prestigious stage of New York City's Carnegie Hall and even the Olympia Halle of Paris, France. She has won monetary prizes for her beautiful vocals and has been featured on documentaries including "Broadway Babies" which was shown on both BBC Wales and BBC World in 2000. Melanie has discovered a newfound interest in songwriting and can currently be found performing in concerts and on recordings for composers in New York City as well as performing her own material as a singer/songwriter in the New York City club scene. "Breathe" is her debut album.
