She sang gospel music with her family when she was young, and she also recorded several gospel albums. Mikki and her siblings once entered a Motown competition, which received national recognition. After this, Mikki continued singing, and formed an R&B singing group entitled MILENIA (with her sisters). This was influenced by Prince. Mikki sang background for Prince in 1999-2001. She performed on shows such as Jay Leno, and in the Prince/Angie Stone video, "You Make My Sunshine". Mikki sang with artists such as Prince, Gerald Levert, R. Kelley, Sheila E., Najee, Boyz II Men, to name a few. Throughout these musical adventures, Mikki decided to pursue her own music career. With music deeply embedded in her blood, she still feels that music is a way to express who she is. I feel like this gift was given from God and I have to use my talents. Since this revelation, she has completed her solo debut CD, MIKKI TIME. Mikki is looking for die-hard fans who love good music, and who believe that great music is more than a bomb beat! It is about soul, passion, and being in tune with ones reality. Mikki is a beautifully talented, soulful artist and is about to do things in a big way! Stay tuned to whats next!
