A super-hot collection of funky tunes with special guest Sam Kininger, Dance Inducing Space Funk 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Funk Rock, ROCK: Jam-band Details: No Bud For Bisson has been kicking the "Space Funk" for 3 years now, and has released THREE full-length albums since the true grooves have been exposed. The band, in it's storied past, has had many configurations, but this final combo has proven to keep their signature "Space Funk" sound an unstoppable addiction to countless live music fans. Never playing the same show twice, NBFb maintains the "jam" tradition, while keeping the aimless "noodling" to a minimal. With funky and tight rhythmic arrangements, the band bridges all genres of music into one cohesive, dance inducing force that makes most every bootie shake. The upcoming release of their third album, "NiBFiB Confidential", has proven a milestone in the evolution of the band, from itty-ditty poppers, to serious and funky songwriters. Produced, Engineered and Mixed by Students and Faculty at the New England Institute of Art in Brookline, this album was an incredible creative effort for many students and teachers the same. With special guests Sam Kininger on Saxophone (Soulive, Lettuce, Brotherhood of Groove, and Sam Kininger Band) and Alecia Chakour on Vocals (The Systematics), this CD is sure to satisfy even the most discerning musical palate.
