Ann Arbor, Michigan trio's debut EP features eclectic indie electro pop fused with Americana and ghostly overtones. Danceable yet contemplative, somewhere between Drum and Bass and Whiskey Ballads. A truly unique and original blend of sounds. 7 MP3 Songs POP: with Electronic Production, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: Established oh so long ago in September of 2005, this Ann Arbor, MI based trio focuses their creative energy into soundscapes about heartbreak, world war II, sudden expatriatism, alone time and those who make it more needed, plain old fashioned lust and those foggy nights when you wind up using parking meters as walking sticks. That crazy old man down the block, his creekly concertina and wonderful raspy voice; the Mod kids in their zipper boots and impeccable hair; the decrepid metropolitan byways of Detroit; Rogers and Hart tunes howled into a megaphone; an empty airport in Osaka at three in the morning on a Tuesday; a mellotron with anger control issues; the way her hips shake when that bass starts moving; the way your head nods in time with her hips.... ...these are the sounds of the MoodieVeto. the MoodieVeto Is: Adam M.
