Tiffany Petrossi's 3rd independent release. Music style is Singer-Songwriter, acoustic-driven, folky pop-rock with female vocals. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Tiffany Petrossi is a singer-songwriter. She is based out of San Jose, California. Tiffany, is the founder of Rockin'Moms website and projects, Esmeralda Records and Realway Music Publishing. Her latest full length album, "Caravan," a mix of acoustic, lyric driven, pop/rock tunes, was released in October 2006. Tiffany first recorded her first album in 2004 at home, with sheets tacked to the wall and bare bones recording equipment (Circles 2004). After, realizing that she wanted to make a better recording and have her songs matched with accompaniment, she recorded "Sweet Groove," a year later at studio. Now, in September 2006 after bringing more experience to the studio and her writing, she is about to independently release her third album, "Caravan," titled after the journey she embarks upon as a songwriter, musician, recording artists and person. Success is what you make of it. She is very grateful to have her songs recorded and to share them with others. Thanks for visiting our page. Career highlights include: A proclamation from Mayor Gavin Newsom, of San Francisco, officially naming 9/14/05, "Tiffany Petrossi Day" in the city of San Francisco, to honor her musical contribution and performance at City Hall; A runner-up in VH1 song of the year contest for her song, "The Actress"; Independently releasing and producing three full length albums (Caravan 06, Sweet Groove 05, Circles 04) with her indie record label, Esmeralda Records. Entered into the 2006 Grammy Awards in the "Best New Artist" Category. Radio play on radio stations around the U.S. and abroad; Singing live at SBC Park for the San Francisco Giants! Founder of rockinmoms (promoting, inspiring and acknowledging the word of moms who rock);
