With contemporary gospel as well as traditional influence this CD has something for everyone. The first single "I Need Your Help (Clean Heart)" was the winner of IGMA's (Independent Gospel Music Association) Contemporary Gospel Song of the Year. The current single "Purpose" is ministering to souls all over the country. Born in Roanoke, VA, Tommy&Nicole met each other singing Gospel. In 1990, then members of Just 4 U, a Gospel ensemble specializing in original music, the two were formally introduced. As members of William Fleming High School Magnet School of the Arts Choir they were trained how to sing. It was then in November of 1991 that the two initially became an item. Married in September of 1993 God made himself known in their lives. Unfortunately the enemy crept in and their relationship as well as their marriage ended in divorce but God didn't want it to stay that way. After 4 years apart the couple rekindled their love and was remarried on July 18, 2003 which became the birth of Tommy&Nicole. After growing up in the church and singing in various choirs all their lives, finally the songs they had been singing started to really mean something. They revisited their roots and Tommy, a licensed COGIC minister and his wife the Aspiring Missionary are the Preacher and His Wife that began working in their God given ministry and are now who we know today to be Tommy&Nicole.
