Two-piece, 21th Century Texas/Mississippi Hill Country Blues and Boogie 18 MP3 Songs BLUES: Delta Style, BLUES: Texas Style Details: On October 10,2003,Trainreck carved out their own piece of music history. While playing a street gig in downtown Clarksdale. MS the day before;They were heard by Rockabilly/Blues artist James Mathus. He invited them up to his "new" studio in the old historic WROX broadcast studio to record. With the Old School Attack of Their Father's Fathers, Trainreck teased propadation of Ages current and classic with their songs. Their steady "Stomp Stride" commingles with multidimensional occupation of rhythm, washboard, snare kick drums and gutbucket Texas/Mississippi Country Blues tones of Lightnin Hopkins, RL Burnside, John Lee Hooker Blind Willie Johnson, they built the foundation for this recording. Dump in a Quart of Soul, some fists full of attitude, a few tracks recorded out of Washboard's Garage, any ol'amplifer... and you have The Amazing Trainreck!!!! The amazing trainreck consists of KM Williams - Guitars,Vocals Harmonica; Washboard Jackson - Traps,(washboard, snare, stomp cymbol, foot cannon).
