Born November 20th,1975 Starting out in Detroit, MI at the age of 14, writing lyrics and then to discover singing abilities a year later. Moved to Arkansas at the age of 15 and participated in talent shows. Opening acts for Bushwick Bill of the Ghetto Boys and also for the ex-backup singer Benito of MC Hammers rap group. Moving on to Ohio, I have auditioned for Gale Atkins, Tyrese's manager, and have participated in many other talent shows. Since then I have continued to write and build a library of songs of 300 lyrics written. I am a member of ASCAP. I started my first cd in Ohio and went underground to create a small buzz. I traveled to Atlanta for promotion and networking. Now 9 years later I reside in Augusta, GA promoting my current cd from Ohio which is entitled "A Scorpio's Feelings", which is also on cdbaby.com/cd/vocol, Tower Records and various other websites to come. I perform my songs at the karaoke bar know as "The Playground", on Wednesday nights from 11pm-2:30am. For the upcoming year of 2006, I will be working on my new cd entitled "Always Thinking". Be looking for the first single on that album entitled "Apple Bottom". I am writing a movie as well. Details yet to come in the near future as well.
