Can a man be forgiven of scandalous conduct - or is he doomed to be forever branded a pariah? If he confesses desire for forbidden fruit, will others accept him as a moral man? Does he deserve an honored title of husband, father, friend, mentor, or even Pastor if he reveals unholy lusts? The truth is that many of us are unable to accept an honest man's confession, or forgive him. In suburban Richmond, Virginia, three generations of up-and-coming African American families strive to overcome inherited weaknesses while establishing a legacy on which to build their faith and futures. Pastor Ivan (Ivy) James, whose father's life was destroyed by sexual deviance, must come to terms with his own imbalanced view of marital romance with beloved wife Yolanda. Learning to express emotional as well as physical intimacy, Ivy simultaneously struggles to father the six children borne by various women during his wild youth. A unique challenge is Ivy's troubled twelve-year-old son Dominic who comes to live with Ivy and Yolanda when his crack-addicted mother cannot provide for him. Ivy's sex addiction faces the ultimate test in Satan's efforts to destroy his ministry. Malcolm Stewart is distraught when lovely wife Telese begins divorce proceedings following yet another bout with his violent temper. Making the decision to change his life permanently, Malcolm enrolls in anger management classes and graduates with honors in hopes of winning back Telese and their two bright children. Stress sends him over the edge in a dangerous emotional spiral. But new friend Steven Hill, security guard who ministers to the homeless and hopeless on the streets, teaches Malcolm to channel his anger positively - by punching the boxing bag to release pain and frustration. Raymond Durrant's career path in the business world is clear and smooth as long he remains in the clutches of supervisor Amanda who will stop at nothing to break up Ray's marriage. When he is tricked into making a terrible mistake, Ray searches for the right answers to his problem and finally makes a stand to choose God over personal success. Amanda tries everything in her power to destroy what he and wife Donae have, risking her reputation and career in an all-out quest to snare Ray for herself. Ray learns to allow God to make his name great, as promised in Scripture. He joins Malcolm and Steven to form a three-cord strand of faith that helps each man fulfill God's purpose for his life. These dynamic young couples build relationships on solid ground to rise above the sin natures of their fathers and mothers and the weaknesses of their own flesh to sow seeds of faith and rebirth. Author: Morgan, Nikole Publisher: nikole morgan Illustration: N Language: ENG Title: Picking Up His Pieces Pages: 00402 (Encrypted EPUB) On Sale: 2012-10-16 SKU-13/ISBN: 9781467545341 Category: Fiction : General
