Dear Professional Marketer, If you would let me read your mind a bit, I am guessing that you probably know the 'what', but don't know the 'how'. You know that if you want to start making big bucks like the rest of the Internet gurus, you've got to have your own exclusive line of sizzling products that sell like gangbusters. But chances are, you don't know HOW. You're not alone. You see, the cold, harsh truth is that most Internet Marketing experts often paint a beautiful, rosy picture about selling digital products online. They tell you things like: Unlike physical or tangible products, selling Information products doesn't require physical inventory thus you can earn close to 100 in clean profit from every sale transaction! Product delivery is instant and customer support is minimal or even non existent. And since the nature of the 'Digital Product' business is automated, you can take time off and enjoy vacations, You can create your own digital product in under 24 hours! While I also agree that selling Information is the best business that anyone can be in today, there's one lie that I cannot stand... and that lie is circulating around the Internet like wildfire! "The Truth About Product Creation Exposed..." And it is that product creation isn't exactly as easy it is painted to be by most 'average' Internet Marketers who are mindlessly parroting the advice. Yes, granted that there are people who have created their own Info Products in 24 hours or less - and it IS absolutely possible. But how many people can actually pull that off? Can YOU pull that off? Maybe you can... only if you have a gift for writing. Or if you are already an established expert in your niche. But what IF you are not? And even if you can churn out your first Information Product in 24 hours, how long can you keep that stressful routine just to compete with Internet tycoons who have HUNDREDS of products to their name? Eventually, you will burn out at the cost of your health. "What About Hiring A Ghostwriter To Do All The 'Shoveling' Work For Me?" Hiring a team of writers to do all the research and create Information Products is said to be the secret marketing weapon of Internet top guns. In as cool and profitable that sounds, it is just exactly it: a secret marketing weapon - reserved just for them. Again if I read your mind correctly (and no offense intended, just saying it like it is) your pockets might be too shallow to get other people to write for you without taking credit. And if you cannot afford the outrageous fees from ghostwriters, are you sure you can afford to forego your success... at your expense? "It Is For This Reason That I've Came Up With A Brand New Solution To Solve Practically Every Product Creation Problem You Have..." That's right. This is not some crappy Resale Rights product carelessly slapped together and no, it's not an affiliate program offer where I get you to join in so we can split the checks later. "I've Blown Away Practically Every Single Product Creation Problem You Have!" That's right. With all the product creation fully done for you to the dot: You don't have to write another single word of content from scratch... ever. You don't have to do market and niche research anymore - the results of research for hot demands are now staring back at you within the collection 100s of pages of solid content in this Private Label Rights package. You don't have to fork out hundreds to thousands of dollars in exorbitant ghostwriting fees. And most importantly, you now have the freedom to proudly call this product as your own, a privilege you can never truly enjoy with Resale Rights product or merely being an affiliate for other people's products.
