With a sizzling career in commercial real estate and an even hotter love life, Delia Carlisle can't believe she's pregnant at forty-three. Dealing in potty training instead of properties...this is not how Delia envisioned her future. Her whole world is about to change, for better or for worse. Alexander DiRossi can feel Delia's insecurities--about the health of the baby, about the changes to her career--but most of all, about him being a younger man. But he couldn't be more thrilled with impending parenthood, or more in love with Delia. The only difficulty will be getting her to accept his marriage proposal, for better or for worse!
