Hard Rock N' Roll with mean blues influence. 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Hard Rock, BLUES: Rockin' Blues
Details: Coming together in the spring of 1998, Baneful Storm is a hard rocking band from Los Angeles, CA, playing everything from mean blues to rock n' roll. Baneful Storm's line up consists of Frank Aguiniga on Vocals, Joe Herrera on guitar, Carlos Reveles on bass, and Donald "Loose Cannon" Coccellato on drums. Their original material contains an excellent deep guitar oriented blues sound while still delivering that good ol' rock n' roll feeling. Baneful Storm have gone into a studio to work on their debut CD release "DOWN WITH THE BLUES." They've continued to work together as they bring forth one of the best rock n' roll shows around. Joe's whailing guitar riffs and screaming leads along with COZ The Cannon's powerful rythm section make a great combination while Frank's rough n' rowdy vocals allow you to feel the passion in each song. Playing mainly originals but also jamming on songs from Clapton, Credence, the late Hendrix SRV, their style has gotten bigger better every show. From thier slower blues jams to the hard rockin' faster paced songs, Baneful Storm delivers a powerful and exceptional show you won't soon forget.
