Dash-Tappin Australian guitar rockin harmonica blowin classic boogie. 10 MP3 Songs BLUES: Rockin' Blues, COUNTRY: Country Blues Details: If you like your Blues Music laden with rock and attitude be sure to jump off at Bluesville Station. The quartet has been doing its thing for a large and loyal fan base all over Australia Founded by station master Brad Palmer (vocals, harmonica, guitar) in 2001, and featuring Paul Holmberg (drums), Mark Buhmann (guitar) and Jon Coote (bass). The quiet achievers of rock and blues music administer their unique brand of stompin songs with power and passion. The year 2005 proved to be one of the most exciting yet for the lads at the station. Following over 50 performances in 2004, the 2005 year didnt allow the station hands a rest with the band holding down residencies at the Lennox Point Hotel, Brisbanes Treasury Casino, Currumbin, Palm Beach and Tallebudgera Surf Clubs. They played Conrad Jupiters as part of 2005s Blues on Broadbeach festival and performed three shows in front of very enthusiastic crowds at the Gympie Muster. With the recent release of their 3rd album, Castlemaine Sessions, the Bluesville jugernaught is set to continue its rompin and stompin way through 2006. We love this band says Julie Rogers from Palmwood there original and fun to watch ,Yeah,they really blow says Julies son Zane. New Album Ready for Release. The long awaited third album is now ready for release and the 10 track recording is indeed another rocker. The Castlemaine Sessions includes all the standard Bluesville Station hallmark harmonica blowin, guitar drivin and gutsy vocal harmony that weve come to expect from our lads. Station Master Brad Palmer confirms, yes this was as much fun to make as the last two records, we have captured another good moment in the groups 5 year history.
