J.W. connected with his alter ego to write literature and songs to escape from Corporate America employment. J.W. rebounds to new success and love described in his book "Product of Detroit" In the book "Product of Detroit" J.W. is now an African American Baby Boomer male. As an adolescent J.W. lived poor in the inner city, on a collision course with drugs and crime. J.W. discusses his environment from childhood to his professional breakdown , how he was able to control his fear to be in tune with his muse. Album "Free On My Own" is an earlier out pouring from J.W. receiving spiritual guidance to be creative.
