Sexy, Romantic, Relaxing Smooth R&B and Latin Jazz 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, JAZZ: Latin Jazz Details: Sexy, Latin styles and romantic, smooth jazz grooves, "Midnight" sets the mood. Whether dining by candlelight with friends, relaxing with a fine wine by the fireplace or enjoying an intimate, sensual evening with your lover, "Midnight" is the perfect choice. Written, arranged and produced by Michael Brandenburg, "Midnight" includes guest performers; Windham Hill Records smooth jazz and Latin star Ray Obiedo on electric guitar, Columbia Records and Mercury Records virtuoso Jackie King on classical guitar, and the great studio artist Norbert Stachel on Sax. For years, Michael has written tracks for many top San Francisco Bay Area CD's including Michael Bolivar's "You Touch My Heart" and "In the City," and Cat Austin's "Tempting Fate" on which he wrote the single "Where Do We Go from Here." Brandenburg performed on Debbie Voltura's "Who's in the Way But Me" and "Vanilla Ella" (recorded live at the Coddington Jazz Series) with his band, Michael Brandenburg and Friends. "Midnight" is the perfect gift. Treat yourself today and enjoy! Reviews: "A great musician is a pioneer, an explorer who searches for new places, finds new ground, reaches for new heights. Sometimes he finds it, sometimes he doesn't, but he never stops searching. Michael Brandenburg is such a musician, such an explorer. He never quits trying and his latest adventure, "Midnight" is what makes him one of the great new pioneers of the new millennium. Join him at "Midnight" and you'll hear what I mean..." - BUD KATZEL, Record Industry Executive "Michael Brandenburg has assembled some of the finest musicians in the Bay Area for his new project. The result is smooth, sensual and jazzy....everything we're looking for in new music for KJZY." - ROB SINGLETON, KJZY FM
