This is a Hip-Hop album. Not Rap, Hip-Hop. 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Brooklyn N.Y. Mista Lawnge, of the popular 90s group Black Sheep, which released its first Hip Hop album in 1991 A Wolf in Sheeps Clothing will release a new album this month called The Class of 89. Using the revised stage name of Mr. Long, this new release is Longs solo quest for a more creative and diverse music genre. Todays Rap is a scratched record focused almost exclusively to street commentary about money, cars, drugs, jail and death, said Long, who has spent the past 6 years on stage with Black Sheep doing club dates and national tours. Being Whack is the new dope, said Long. I call it a glorification of the ignorance of small minds where rhymes are about materials things, sex and the underworld and not enough about causes. The Class of 89 is Longs response to a following of fans over the last decade continue to flock to Black Sheeps concerts seeking the old sound when Hip Hop was music. The Album represents Longs desire to give listeners variety. A variety that swept the Hip Hop airwaves in the 80s and early 90s from artists as diverse as Public Enemy, NWA and 2 Live Crew on one end of the spectrum to GangStar, Black Sheep and Pete Rock and C.L. Smooth on the other end. I am not saying there is no room for lyrics about crime and punishment or sex, said Long. I understand why they do what they do because people without money in general like to escape their reality and fantasize about material wealth. This desire was prevalent when I came into the GAME! My problem is that todays Rap music does not give those drawn to Rap music any productive ways to get what they desire. I grew up in the hood and I empathize with hustling, said Long. The Class of 89 is a return of leadership to the Rap generation. Mainstream America may not have related to or understood Hip Hop and its breakthrough in popularity in the 1980s. But it was accepted and even appreciated because the artists displayed talent and creativity through this genius form of expression called Hip Hop, concluded Long.

Producers, DJs and Hip Hop fans are calling this new album a revival and tribute to the true spirit of Hip Hop. Featuring tracks like I wish you would, Quality time, and Lickin Stickin. The Class of 89 will be available as of June 2006 online at mrlongmusic.com. (KEEP IT HIP HOP!)
