Multi-Genre, quirky Pop-Jazz with elements of spoken word and satirical social commentary. Funny and hip. 21 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Everything's Normal Here is a true departure from most albums. Released in 1997, the CD is a musical journey through the mind of it's creator, Patrick Frost. A quick glance at the song titles will give an idea of what's inside. A collage of musical styles, social and political satire, stream of consciousness beat poetry and cleverly crafted pop hooks. Frost is a musical artist from Orlando, Florida. His resume includes extensive work as a studio composer/producer, a performing musician. Patrick is a believer in the album as an artistic canvas designed to be consumed as a whole. This idea of conceptual continuity is a crucial element in the work of his major influences which include Frank Zappa, Joe Jackson, Brian Wilson, Tom Waits, The Beatles and Captain Beefheart. Frost is quick to point out the influence of Film and Television composers such as Vic Mizzy, Pat Williams, Ennio Morricone and Bernard Herrmann The album features performances by some of Central Florida's finest musicians including Hall Oates reedman -Charlie DeChant, Guitarist -Tommy Calton, Drummer -Fred Domulot and former Spewns Bassist -Brett Bennett.
