Details: Patrick and Michael Loonan's rich brotherly harmonies, versatile musicianship and original songwriting have captured the attention of fans and musicians throughout the Twin Cities area. Patrick Loonan has been writing songs for over 25 years - his songs tell stories of travels and a variety of life experiences. His compositions on the Loonan Brothers CD "The Day Has Come" are described as a love letter to God and to the people seeking peace through prayer. Michael Loonan is a well-respected singer, songwriter, musician, arranger and producer who has two critically acclaimed solo CDs available on CD Baby ("Share the Disguise" and "Piano for the holidays")! He plays piano and guitar at Nativity Church in St. Paul, and also performs solo around the Twin Cities. In November 2003, Michael released "piano for the holidays," a beautiful CD of solo-piano holiday favorites. He plays around the Twin Cities with the popular dance band, 2nd Generation. Radio listeners know Michael as the musical leader of KSTP-AM 1500's "Mischke Broadcast." Michael composes music and TV/radio jingles, and he often plays piano professionally in a tuxedo!
