"Brand New Dusties", Melody groove describe this music with touches of old school and motown pop with lyrics inspired by life and love this album is smooth but not sleepy 9 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs Details: Ecstasy is the first CD-release for the R2Project. R2Project is pronounced, "R squared" Project Featuring Bonnie Phillips. Formerly known as Spectrum featuring Bonnie Phillips. Both Chicago natives, Robert Reddrick and Bonnie Phillips-Reddrick are the masterminds behind this new old school, rhythm blues, easy listening CD. Robert, whose first love is for keeping a soulful, rhythmic beat on the drums, brings his knowledge of music and composition acquired at Columbia College, his expertise as a musician sound engineer from touring with The Platters featuring The Legendary Monroe Powell, live and recorded performances with Melba Moore as Assistant Musical Director for the Chicago Black Ensemble Theater, bandleader for R2Project, and CEO of RARe Productions his own recording studio, to write, produce, record, master, and accompany instrumentally on this project. Bonnie's voice and style while being a featured vocalist locally and abroad is always likened to Phyllis Hyman, Sade, Toni Braxton, Brenda Russell, or Dionne Warwick, also her love for Tina Turner is what led to her becoming the featured vocalist for R2Project (it also didn't hurt being married to Robert). Bonnie brings her vocal arrangements from touring internationally and nationally with the Platters, along with lyrics that enhance her sultry, smooth, melodic tones to this compilation of songs of love life. Ecstasy the CD, let's you groove to the wide range of feelings and emotions in a relationship, from the loneliness of missing your love (Sunday Evening Blues), The unspeakable words of passion while making love (Ecstasy), the hopelessness of love (Lost In The Game), The realization of love (Song For You), the joyfulness of love (Steppin'), the togetherness of love (You're Not Alone), the love of self (Brand New Day), and the faith, trust, and belief in love (Faith), all while flowing to a smooth funky beat.
