An assortment of folksongs ranging from the love song to the political song. Lyrics that get you thinking, and a sound that goes well with any atmosphere or mood. Singer/songwriter folk style; sometimes funky, sometimes punky, sometimes just plain folky. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: like Ani Details: Steph Furness Founder, Aviatrix Productions Steph is a singer/songwriter/guitarist with a serious need to facilitate some change. She sings candidly of her life experiences and welcomes others to relate their own. Influenced by folk greats such as Ani DiFranco and Cheryl Wheeler, as well as local NJ artists such as Kate Evans, Steph melds traditional folk styles (i.e. Joan Baez) with blues, funk, punk and sometimes rock. Steph's debut cd, "aviatrix", was released in June 2002 and is available at cdbaby.com. She has an ep due out on Aviatrix Productions in November (and will also be available on cdbaby). Steph's record label/distro/pr engine, Aviatrix Productions, will serve as a promotion community for female musicians, as well as other female artists, who challenge the current order with their creations. Steph's song "Not Completely Free" was accepted in May 2002 to a compilation put together by Michelle Malone, which was distributed at concerts played by artists on SBS Records and via purchases made at Daemon Records, Amy Ray's record label. Another of Steph's songs, "Build It Up", won third place in the summer of 2002 in a national songwriting contest. To access her tour schedule, visit: aviatrixproductions.com/gigs.html.
