Alterna-jazz darling Paul Hemmings and his Trio deliver a dazzling performance of the classic Beatles album "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band" in its entirety at a benefit concert for the Third Street Music School Settlement in New York City. 13 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Weird Jazz, ROCK: Instrumental Rock Details: Far from an imitative tribute record, Sgt. Peppers Lonely Hearts Club Band (Live!) captures the Paul Hemmings Trios creative rendition of the classic Beatles album in its entirety, as performed in New York Citys Anne-Marie Kellen Auditorium in March of 2006. From the program notes:

----- "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band is the most important rock roll album ever made, an unsurpassed adventure in concept, sound, songwriting, cover art, and studio technology by the greatest rock roll group of all time. From the title song's regal blasts of brass and fuzz to the orchestral seizure and long, dying piano chord at the end of "A Day In The Life," the thirteen tracks on Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band are [a]...theatrical conceit: an imaginary concert by a fictional band, played by the Beatles." - Rolling Stone Magazine "We'd pretend to be someone else...It liberated you -- you could do anything when you got to the mike or on your guitar, because it wasn't you." - Paul McCartney "Jazz isn't dead, it just smells funny." -Frank Zappa
