

Navigating Numeracies

DOWNLOAD HERE

Preface.- Margaret Brown: The Leverhulme Numeracy Programme.- The Context: Section Introduction.
Introduction: The research aims and synopsis of book.- Explanations for low achievement; class, poverty, ethnicity.- Theory and Methodology: Section Introduction.- Theoretical Positions: A social practice approach to numeracy; Numeracy events and practices.- Methodology: Exploring the relationship between home and school; domains and sites, case studies and critical incidents.- Case Studies: Section Introduction.- Children: a Seth (Mo)b Kim (Ta) c Antonia (Ro).- Schools a Mountford b Tarnside c Rowan.- Themes: Section Introduction.- Numeracy Practices at School: Engagement, Coded Questions and Switching.- Numeracy Practices at home: Cultural resources.- Numeracy Practices: relations of Home and School.- Conclusion: Explanations for Low achievement.- Implications for Practice, Policy and Research. EAN/ISBN : 9781402036774 Publisher(s): Springer Netherlands Format: ePub/PDF Author(s): Street, Brian - Baker, Dave - Tomlin, Alison

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

Navigating Numeracies