PANIC Oone-Time-Offer Imagine being able to easily create a sense of urgency that will make your customers go into a buying frenzy... Make Your Customers Decide On The Spot & Instantly Boost Your Sales With this little tool, it takes only 3 steps to create your very own PANIC OTO: Answer some questions about your offer. Save the generated page. Upload the files to your server. They don't come any easier than this! Hi Fellow Marketer! Using a One-Time-Offer is an excellent marketing technique that can make you tons of money! We all know that. But imagine being able to make sure that One-Time-Offer is displayed ONLY ONCE to each viewer? It is a proven fact that people are more likely to read your offer if they know it's the only chance they'll get. A simple little marketing trick that will almost certainly boost your sales. And guess what happens when you add a live countdown so your visitors know it is a one-time offer that will expire automatically, forcing them to decide on the spot? Well, I've checked it out: I've added both features to my OTO, and guess what... One week later, my sales had tripled. PANIC OTO is a simple tool that allows you to create a TIME LIMITED offer that will be displayed ONLY ONCE to each visitor. Features: With this cool little software tool you can... ... easily add your own special offer. ... decide on the countdown length. ... use this tool with every payment processor that provides a URL for payment. (This includes PayPal & Clickbank.) ... easily change the background image. If you know some HTML, you can change the look of the entire page. ... rebrand the 'Powered By PanicOTO' link at the bottom of the generated page with your own PayPal address.
