garageband.com/genre/industrial/current.html  Music reviews quotes: From Indie-Music.com " 7th Dimennsion has managed to create an interesting, musically diverse album that is solid on all the important points a post-industrial outfit should be. They have two talented vocalists, excellent drum programming, and samples that add to the songs instead of drawing away from them. Combined with Marqus Mars amazingly catchy guitar work that is memorable instead of just blending into the mix as with so many other industrial outfits, and you have the formula for an incredibly strong album." From Music Connection Magazine 02/14-27/2005 "Sex, Wanton and Rock Roll from this N.Y.-based duo's album offers some choice cuts of techno/goth Matrix-informed material. "Hunger" is a Garbage-like, guitar-driven pumper with a dance-oriented rock stance. Singer Ilonah's voice shines well both here and on "Liberate my Mind" a heavier, metal-injected tune with a flanged vocal. Cohort Marqus Mars handles lead vocals on "Keep On keeping on" with a heavily effected voice. This act's vision could snare the Evanescence crowd." From Aiding Abetting " 7th DIMENNSION blasts out soaring dance tracks, replete with metal guitars, trance beats and the occasional dip into the goth bag of tricks." "Anything that impedes movement has been eliminated. Loud, fun and fast." From 1340mag.com "...if you like electronic Madonna, Marilyn Manson, or pretty much anything in between that has a great groove and heavy electronics then you should definitely check out 7th DIMENNSION." Reviews of songs from GarageBand

Song: Following the Wanton "Powerful" "Excellent power feel in the groove, and superb female vocals that drive its power. Really blastin' groove, excellent blend of sounds. A great song overall. Good stuff."

Triple_erre Montreal, Quebec, Canada Song: Liberate my Mind "I dropped my jaw. Let me get that." That's what I'm talking about. Originality. Great stuff and as I said to the past three people that really didn't add up to this female singers get me good but they were not good. You are. The egyptian breaks always gets me also. Guitar, programing, percussion, and vocals all get a big plus 5 from me. Hugs. Keep it up, I'll be checking up on you.

Unlucky13tattoo Mount Carmel, Pennsylvania Song: In the Rain "SONG OF SONGS" Straight into the action with this track. Straight from the offset you are forced into another world of Musical Healing. This track is amazing. The vocals are excellent they flow well with the rest of the track. The drums and perc are top notch (mayby a little reverb on the lower drums). This track has it all a puncy intro a constant flowing piece throughout then it finishes how all songs need to be finished with big orchestral piece to end The SONGS OF SONGS. Keep it up.

Slotvent Reading, Berkshire, United Kingdom Song: Wild Wild River "Growling Intro and off you GO!" "Aye! The mixmaster is working overtime on this track! You have an excellent recording here with all of the musical sound sprectrum blanketed with cool sounds that just drive and pump up UP UP! I loved that lead vocal that had just the right of confidence she can sell a tune."

GEEZO MannO, Yuza gotta 5* jambo! Stringman3 Parker, Colorado Song: I'm Delighted "LOVED IT" The intro is dam good. It grabed me by surprise and the effects are cool. You should be able to make a killing from this not only in US but in the UK. The song reminded me of something the artist Kaydean would write like something form his Wisdom Project.

MARCUS34ZUWI32 Holland, Michigan Song: Keep on keeping on "Absolutely amazing in every way!!!" The sound is smooth, the intro is appealing, the chorus is GREAT. I love this song. It is perfect and there is nothing wrong with it at all. Keep on keeping on.

Kjeblo Spokane, Washington Song: Sex, Wanton and Rock 'n' Roll "STP-NIN crossover" "Interesting combination of musical directions. The vocalist reminds me of Stone Temple Pilots, but the arrangement sorta reminds me of Nine Inch Nails, only with a bit more pop-like lyrics sundry with a fast-paced break-beat cheer. There are some commendable rolls that would not shame the likes of David Bowie's "Little Wonder", and great eerie sounds like the vocal effect on "this is the dawn of the new world" and siren sample."
