If you like intelligent and very funny stand-up comedy by someone who really knows where he is going and can take you to the unexpected places with even the most mundane material this is a stand-up comedy CD you will definitely enjoy." - TheSeriousComedySite.com "Nussbaum just released his first CD, Absolutely Free!, and it's a gem. The guy has a real sharp wit." - Lethbridge Herald Nussbaum can find the funny in seemingly incongruous things. He's stand-up comedy's great lateral thinker. - Glenn Sumi, NOW Magazine Toronto Im not much of a laugher, which may be odd for a comedy reviewer Still, about once a decade Im good for a bout of giggles I cant stop. The routine gave my face a real workout. Laughing hurts. At least it can rest for another 10 years. - Guy Macpherson, The Georgia Straight (Vancouver) "Certifiably Hilarious" - Jim Slotek, Toronto Sun BIO - A former character designer for such animated television programs as Bob Margaret, Franklin the Turtle, and The Magic School Bus, Alex Nussbaum has risen to the top of the Canadian comedy scene, as evidenced by his 2004 Canadian Comedy Award nomination for Best Male Stand up. As a stand-up comic, he has a style that is both silly and clever, combining equal parts absurdist, observational and physical comedy. His stand up act has caused Toronto's Now Magazine to recently ask, Why isnt Alex Nussbaum a star? and The Hollywood Reporter to name him as a face to watch Most recently, Alex found himself returning to Montreal's Just for Laughs Festival to tape a Gala which is currently airing across the globe. alexnussbaum.com
