Details: After 13 years of law practice, and 2 years of life in Scotland, allen Levi, in 1996, traded his suits and briefcase for blue jeans and guitar case. Prolific, observant, witty, and beautifully lyrical, his songs and stories are a celebration of simple moments, common people, universal experiences, and a very good God. This album is a collection of songs from live performances and includes stories, song background, and monologues which are so much a part of allens concerts.
