Country Gospel music ministry with an uplifting message of hope. Recorded and produced by Johnny Mulhair, producer of LeAnn Rimes 8 time platinum album "Blue", who also provides a wide range of his guitar picking talents on Andrea's originals. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Country Gospel, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: Andrea began putting her musical talents to work after graduating high school and began singing with various country and western bands in northeast New Mexico and traveling the tri-state area for 12 years. In 1993 she gave her life to Jesus and has been using her voice to praise and worship Him. Andrea is a member of the Country Gospel Music Association and made her first gospel duet recording with friend Evelyn Taylor Cruz in 1998 titled, "Sheltered In The Arms of God" then went on to record a solo album released in 2000 titled, "Not Forsaken". On this album, Esquivel has written the first five songs. Johnny Mulhair, producer of LeAnn Rimes "Blue" album and also named one of the top 10 Guitarist in the country by Music Row Magazine in Nashville, plays everything from pedal steel guitar to the mandolin on Andrea's originals. The song "I'm Changin'", one of Esquivel's, was on the Country Gospel Music Guild's top 80 charts from April 2006 to July 2006. Andrea continues to expand her songwriting talents and will release a new album sometime in early 2007 on which all will be original songs written and performed by her. Andrea's desire is to reach people through music and testimony of Jesus Christ of how he has transformed her life and how He can do the same for others. Friends, it is my sincere hope that you will enjoy this album and that it will be an inspiration to you. There HE hung the WAY, the TRUTH, the LIFE The WAY you should walk, the TRUTH you should believe, the LIFE by which you should live.
