Rock, worship, and praise. Definitely for a time of worship and tuning your heart to God. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: with Live-band Production Details: "My intention today and everyday is to be passionately pursuing His presence. I desire to share my love for music, but more importantly, to share my love for the one who gives the music, Jesus." - Brett Rush The passion of singer, songwriter, and Pastor Brett Rush is evident in everything he does. Perhaps this explains his accomplishments for the Kingdom in such a short time. He planted Shiloh Tabernacle, an inter-denominational fellowship, which he has been serving for the last seven years as pastor and worship leader. Brett confesses, "I was created to worship, and I am called to preach." "These are an intentionally diverse and personal set of songs," confides Brett, offering his thoughts on his new national release, INVITATION. "I just speak from the heart, as the Lord speaks to me." Brett's songs encourage us to recognize the unlimited resource we have in Christ. "This record is an open invitation to God to come and make a home in our hearts." Brett credits Don Potter and his music for inspiring him to passionately pursue Christ. He also cites Mac Powell of Third Day and Jeremy Camp as primary musical influences. INVITATION is a pleasant blend of acoustic melodies, rock flavorings and stirring worshipful lyrics. Brett's dynamic voice, coupled with the studio direction of Nashville producer Eric Copeland (Creative Soul) and some of Christian music's finest musicians and technical folks, have resulted in an exceptional music and worship experience.
