From contemporary jazz, to women's blues, to ballads rock roll, Carol sings original songs reflecting every woman's journey into the 21st century. 10 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Details: "Just Gonna Think About Today" is the dynamite CD debut of singer/songwriter Carol Selick. From the contemporary jazz oriented "A Drop In the Ocean" (shades of Peggy Lee) to "Middle of the Road" and "Weary Women's Blues" (with a bow to B.B. King and Bonnie Raitt) through the rock 'n rollin' drama of "One Night Stand" and the sultry island sound of "Let Me Bring Out The Animal In You", Carol touches on every woman's journey sung with compassion, humor and love..set to the driving beat of The Barry Levitt New York Downtown Band. "Bouncy", "Bluesy", "Jazzy" have all been used to describe the exciting Selick sound. But after giving a listen to the selections of songs by British songwriter/producer Johnny Brandon, many co-written with Carol we think you will add Caring, Perceptive, and Provocative. Of special meaning is "A Life to Remember" which was written to honor the heroes of 9/11 and which Carol had the honor of performing for Todd Beamer's widow, Lisa Beamer.
