Christian Contemporary/Worship 8 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Cathy was born in Upstate New York in 1975. Having Christian parents, she was brought up in church. She was saved at the age of nine and was very involved in many areas of church ministries. Cathy participated in many ministry opportunities all through her teen years. She has memorized a total of seven complete books of the Bible. She also competed in Bible Quiz at the National level in 1993. She accepted the call into ministry and attended a Bible College, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Youth Ministry, with a minor in Pastoral counseling. Since 1988, Cathy has been trained in piano and voice along with participating in the areas of soloist, pianist, songwriter, worship leader, and worship team vocalist. She has not only used this talent on television in the States, but has helped in leading worship in Mexico and Ecuador using their native language. She has also ministered in Kingston, Jamaica. In 1998, Cathy became an Elementary music teacher, and also a Private Piano Teacher. In the summer of 2001 Cathy began her first recording on the current release: "I Choose Your Ways". This is her first copy-written series of 8 songs. Cathy has written close to 35 songs, with a few more in the making. She plans to start her next album sometime in 2004. God's blessings on Cathy's life are undeniable. She uses her talents and abilities to strengthen and encourage the Body of Christ, but mostly to Honor God and give him praise. Many reports have come in consistently confirming the sweet, presence of the Lord that is revealed through her music.
