Details: Jos Debut Album "Magical Garden is a collection of 13 of her finest songs. Accompanied by her acoustic guitar, Jos songs are a folk/country mix with a distinct Australian flavor and reflect her life experiences. Songs such as Bundanoon and Kings Cross replicate her diverse and great story telling ability, whilst Magical Garden, Refugee and Pioneer Lady submit passions close to her heart. Jo grew up around music with a violin teaching mother. She studied piano, but switched to guitar when her father conceded she couldnt drag that piano on a trip around Australia. She first performed as a singer/songwriter/guitarist at 16. Challenging herself to a culture shock, she moved from her parents quiet South Coast rural retreat to the busy streets of Kings Cross, where she busked to support herself as a journalism student. It wasnt long before she had her first gig in a dimly lit little Jazz bar called Round Midnight in The Cross. There, she showcased her raw, unique talent and song writing ability, moving a sceptical city audience, somewhat unaccustomed to the profound, honest sound of a young acoustic songstress from the bush. A bucket of hard earned buskers cash later, she bought a plane ticket to America where she worked at a summer camp in California teaching music to children and running songwriting workshops. She returned to Australia settling in the Southern Highlands 10 years ago and has played along side the likes of Steve Prestwich (Cold Chisel), Shane Pacey (Bondi Cigars) and will soon support Australias own Jack Johnson; Paul Greene. Her album is enjoying great airplay with Red Shiny Shoes, Refugee, Brougham Street, Kings Cross and Bundanoon proving radio favourites. Youll hear some earthy folk tunes and some modern country fused with sweet harmonies plus a beautiful yet simplistic mix of instruments complimenting each song on the album.
