Contemporary R&B 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues Details: My name is Joe Martin. I live in Jackson, Mississippi. I have been singing as long as I can remember, performing in talent shows, and hosting events, parties, weddings and stage shows. I was born and raised in a small town in Northeast Mississippi, West Point. I grew up listening to a wide range of R and B singers, as well as outstanding country artists. As a result, my style of singing was greatly influenced by such artists as Nat King Cole, Brook Benton, Isaac Hayes and Conway Twitty, just to name a few. This album, 'Missing You' will reflect their influence. With a touch of smooth R and B, to a hint of country in cut number 7, this album will put you in a relaxed mood for your listening enjoyment. Please take a few minutes to listen to it, I am sure you will find it's just what you have been searching for.
