Tokyo Rules grew from the passion Lucky has for Japanese culture. He wanted to create an album that was his ode to a beautiful country. Having been a fan of the Manga/Anime movies through to the J-Pop music genre, there was no better excuse for him to produce an album that was geared more for the mainstream, music that would be catchy but also straight up fun. The whole album features 12 original songs that are grouped into clusters of 2-3 songs. Characters and stories have been created for each cluster of songs, however, the album wasn't written with the intention of it being conceptual but it does touch on elements of the Japanese culture. The song topics range from romance through to politics. You are guaranteed to find yourselves humming along to these songs, Tokyo Rules is commercial music with a much needed facelift!
