Psy Trance-orhestrated swirling sounds to make you dance in a different realm. Even better on headphones. 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Trance, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: Trancelation X is composed of the one man production team Chief Dog. It was composed and created, mostly during the spring and early summer. All instruments are virtual. No external hardware is ysed, other then the occasional guitar in 3 songs. That means all the sounds resided in the computer it was created on while an external keyboard was used to create it. The composer,Chief Dog has a lengthy time invested as a musician, guitar actually being his first instrument. He started using synth type tones in his music and learned to program keyboard parts about 10 years ago. Since then he has also had a love for dance music and has studied many EDM genres and composers before deciding to finally make Psy Trance his home for EDM composing. Through Psy Trance Chief Dog can express himself as a composer in a much different way than as a guitarist. The challenge is to be both musical and make the listener feel a groove they can dance to. Fasten your seatbelts and take a journey into the mind....and the Universe of: Psy Trance!
