BACK COVER COPY: Disfigured in an accident that killed his wife, reclusive photographer, Rafael D'Angelo wants to be left alone amid rumors the car crash was no accident. Julie Brightman has been secretly in love with her sister's husband for years. When a violent thunderstorm strands her at his secluded house, she discovers the man in the mask is not the Rafe she remembers. Trapped together, their happiness is threatened by the past that haunts them and the secrets they keep from each other. TO

MY READER: I grew up reading gothic romances with big old secluded houses and tortured heroes. I wanted to write a story with that same great atmosphere, a scarred hero, a heroine to bring light into his life, and add some major sizzle too. Hope you enjoy! ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Natasha Moore fell in love with the written word as soon as she could read. As she grew up, she discovered romance and now enjoys the chance to add some extra sizzle to her stories. She lives in New York State with her real life hero who is happy to tell everyone that he's her inspiration. They travel in their RV whenever possible.

The great thing about writing is she can take it anywhere. Feel free to drop her at note at
