You wouldn't expect a French band to sound like this many people told me in the last 2 weeks- well, I would!

CELLULOIDE are: Member U-0176, Patrick Holdwem and the wonderful singer Darkleti who gives Celluloide their unique sound with her dark, sensual voice. Celluloide work entirely analogue with vintage equipment as old as themselves to create the sound of tomorrow with a strong 80s influence. Words once said is already their second album. The first one Naive Heart was highly recommended by magazines like Sideline and many others and put on the same level as artists like Ladytron and Miss Kittin. In France, the band releases their albums through their own label BoredomProduct and has cult status in the French electro scene. The album contains 12 brand new tracks as well as 4 Remixes of recent tracks, remixed by artists such as Boytronic, No Comment and Sista Mannen PaJorden (ex S.P.O.C.K.)
