An acoustic blend of voice and celtic harp. reminding one of the joy of the gift the peace. A very Celtic Christmas. 7 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Celtic New Age, EASY LISTENING: Background Music Details: To say Destiny is a uniquely talented artist is a severe understatement. Both a harpist and vocalist, Destiny enjoys a flourishing music career as the demand for her distinctive brand of stirring music and vocals continue to grow. Although she started playing the Harp 10 years ago, Destiny currently rewrites classic recordings to create original pieces of her own as well as her original pieces, Maryam's Hajj and The Hajj of a Savior on "The Birth of A Savior" a collection traditional holiday and celtic inspirations music. She initially became interested in playing the harp as a child but it was a trip to Belgium as an adult that inspired her to receive formal training and pursue a career as a professional harpist. "I heard an album featuring the kora while I was there and I was just mesmerized by the sound" Soon after, she began taking harp lessons and is now widely known for what she refers to as "acoustic-jazz-classical" style. Since being discovered by D'wayne Wiggins, founding member of the platinum-selling R&B group, Tony Toni Ton'e and President of Grass Roots Entertainment, it seems Destiny has found the creative and professional backing she needed to further propel her career and to reach listeners around the world
