People who are interested in Stevie Wonder Steely Dan XTC should consider this download. Details: The second CD by Gilbert Neal finds him growing appropriately more cynical with the times, and yet still able to effortlessly mesmerize his audience with scintillating dance grooves ("Isn't She Amazing?", "Medicine"), fascinating character studies ("Median Man", "Bubble") and more astonishing lyrics.

Mastered by Grammy Nominee Phillip Klum, "Our Deepest Apathy..." resonates with anyone who has ever lost a loved one, loved a lost one, or lusted after a lost love. Continuing in the vein of his critically acclaimed debut, "Drink The Beast With Me", Neal continues to reign as one of North Carolina's most unique songwriters, an amazing talent (Neal plays most of the instruments himself in the style of Todd Rundgren, Prince, and Jim and Tammy Fay Baker) and maybe the finest undiscovered vocal talent in the United States.
