BLUES: Chicago Style, BLUES: Electric Blues Details: Biography of Australian Blues Artist: Henry Correy

A Bassist,Vocalist,Songwriter in the Blues genre. His career spans over three decades playing with many icons of the Australian music scene, including household names in Oz such as Richard Clapton and Renee Geyer, as well as international artists John Mayall, Lynwood Slim, and many more. Throughout each decade he has achieved many rewarding milestones. Each one taking him to a higher and more enriching stage of his musical journey. He has performed at some of Australia's major venues and Blues festivals. Henry's music has been performed by a Big Band Orchestra at the world famous Sydney Opera House, as well as showcasing in several movies. The 80's saw him achieve Heavy Metal Chart success in USA and Europe as well as running his own record company. Several years ago he rediscovered his roots and the reason he started playing music in the first place: His love for The Blues. Having paid his dues, he now plays the Blues with sincerity, passion, and conviction in his own unique style. As a play-off from his name, the musicians forming his band are known as The Correydors (pronounced: CORRIDORS). There are two cds available at the moment. The first"Time Is A Teacher" and the latest product "Heat Of The Moment". Make yourself familiar with them! This latest cd,Heat Of The Moment, was recorded "Live In The Studio" before an invited audience of Blues fans and Blues media personalities,including reviewers and Blues radio programmers. Gary De Wall (Blues writer)wrote:"Contains grooves so deep you could twist an ankle!" Many tracks from this cd have been embraced by regular and internet radio programmers in Europe, Scandinavia,USA,Canada,Australia and NZ. The band has been invited to play at a Blues Festival in Antwerp Belgium in 2005. Enjoy these original Blues tunes from Australia !
