

Mp3 James Bowman Iii - Experience: My Perspective

DOWNLOAD HERE

This young man possesses a smooth delivery that reminds us of crooners such as Nat King Cole while at the same time offering rhythmic vibes reminiscent of Earth, Wind & Fire. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Inspirational, uplifting, and old school are just a few of the words that describe the music ministry of James Bowman III. Bowman, a product of Christian parents, is originally from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He has survived a tumultuous childhood and gone from being homeless to acquiring a masters degree. The intensity of his life experience is felt through his soulful sounds that remind us of yesteryear. James Bowman is no stranger to music. While attending Oakwood College (a Seventh - Day Adventist Liberal Arts College located in Huntsville, AL), he played drums and excess percussion with several national and international recording artists. A Special Blend, Brian McKnight, Virtue, Mervyn Warren (formerly of Take 6) and Erik Essix, are among the many artists with whom James Bowman has performed. He has also opened (on drums) for other artists such as Tramaine Hawkins, Edwin Hawkins, Commissioned, Be Be and Ce Ce Winans, Bobby Jones, Nicole C. Mullin, DC Talk, Vanessa Bell Armstrong, Vicki Winans, Kirk Franklin, Roland Gresham and the list go on. What would compel such an accomplished musician to delve into the realm of vocalization? Bowmans answer would be, ... a call from God to exercise other gifts He has given to me. This young man possesses a smooth delivery that reminds us of crooners such as Nat King Cole while at the same time offering rhythmic vibes reminiscent of Earth, Wind & Fire. James Bowman III is currently a member of the Madison Mission Seventh-Day Adventist church where he serves as a musician for 3MC (Madison Mission Mass Choir). Bowmans goals are to continue to minister in song and deed and to serve the Lord Jesus Christ.
