- No Regret " No regret, no regret I wanna live my life With no regret, no regret That's how I want to die"

The chorus of this title song embodies the spirit of Linda Bonadies' new CD as well as her life. A married mother of three, Linda confronted the challenge of rediscovering herself and her music, ultimately finding her voice in popular songwriting. Linda's songs are based on her own life experiences and tell stories we all need to hear. "The themes on this CD are personal yet universal in nature including breaking the bonds that imprison our souls, losing and finding ourselves, discovering our inner voice, and following our dreams," says Bonadies. With intelligent lyrics and unforgettable melodies, these well crafted songs are as much inspirational as they are entertaining. Her musical influences are Carole King, Billy Joel and Elton John, but her refreshing, earnest and positive style is all her own. A native of Summit, New Jersey, Linda spent her formative years studying music composition, receiving a Bachelor of Music Degree from Bucknell University and a Masters in Composition from Hartt School of Music. She also promoted the arts while working for The Bushnell in Hartford, Ct. Bonadies currently lives with her family in Hamden, CT. Contact Linda at linda@lindabonadies.com
